

That-Clauses

1. It's clear that traffic is worse.

That traffic is worse is clear. (Both have the same meaning.)

2. It's a fact that people are unhappy with the government.
3. Doctors know that smoking causes cancer and heart disease.
4. I'm worried that he might fall.
5. It's understandable that you feel frustrated.
6. The fact that he's rich doesn't matter.

With wh words: Question: What did he do? (It was wrong.)

Statement: What he did was wrong.

1. When did they go? (It is unknown.)
2. Why are you sad? (It's a surprise.)