

The Auxiliaries “Be” and “Do” in Questions.

Directions: Change the sentences into questions using the corresponding auxiliary.

1. Andy goes to work early in the morning.

2. Kim stays at home during the weekends.

3. Mike is at work right now.

4. Teddy and I ride to work together.

5. The boys are swimming in the pool.

6. They need a new car. Their car doesn't work.

7. Bobby and Katie are happily married.

8. She has many responsibilities in her new job.

9. I am supposed to study tonight. I need my books.

10. Their house is big. It has five bedrooms and four bathrooms.

Myra M. Medina, 2006
Miami Dade College

Permission granted to reproduce for classroom use.