

Present Perfect – Have You Ever?

Find out about the life experiences of your classmates. Ask a question using the Present Perfect and the experiences listed below. When you find a student who answers “yes,” follow up with a simple past question. Make notes so you can report to the class. The first has been filled in as an example.

Student 1: Hey Carlos, have you ever ridden a horse?

Student 2: Yes, I have.

Student 1: Really? Where did you ride one?

Student 2: Back in Colombia, on my grandfather’s farm.
