

Worksheet 6. Present verbs: Vocabulary practice

Circle the letter of the sentence that means the same as the first sentence.

1. Henri is a gourmet cook.
 - a. Henri cooks only very simple dishes, like hot dogs and hamburgers.
 - b. Henri likes to cook complicated dishes, and they are very tasty.
 - c. Henri never cooks.

2. Geography and math are ordinary subjects for eight-year-old school children to study.
 - a. Eight-year-old children usually study geography and math.
 - b. Geography and math are too difficult for eight-year-olds.
 - c. Eight-year-old children usually like geography and math.

3. The food at the festival is plentiful.
 - a. There is a lot of food.
 - b. The food is delicious.
 - c. There isn't much food.

4. Water consists of hydrogen and oxygen.
 - a. There are two things in water: hydrogen and oxygen.
 - b. Water needs hydrogen and oxygen
 - c. Water has hydrogen, oxygen, and other things in it.

5. Television programs often pause for commercial messages.
 - a. A TV program stops for a long time.
 - b. A TV program stops for a short time, and you see some ads.
 - c. A TV program starts late.

6. Everybody in the office performs his or her special task.
 - a. Everybody does a lot of work.
 - b. Everybody knows how to do all the jobs in the office.
 - c. Everybody does only his or her own job.

7. My father spends all his time at his office.
 - a. My father is rarely at his office.
 - b. My father is often at home.
 - c. My father is almost always at his office.

8. We usually eat lunch at midday.
 - a. We eat lunch at midnight.
 - b. We eat lunch in the early evening.
 - c. We eat lunch around noon.